

Government-wide First Nations Accommodation

Honourable Geoff Plant

Attorney General and Minister
Responsible for Treaty Negotiations

Open Cabinet – June 30, 2004

British Columbia's Commitment

- Throne Speech stated B.C. will strive for accommodation and improved relationships with First Nations
- 2003/2004 Budget Speech committed funding to forestry revenue sharing

Purpose of Accommodation

- Economic opportunity for all
- Fulfill legal duty
- Create enhanced certainty for Crown land and resources
- Pre-treaty arrangements

Balance

- Government is striving for a balance between its goals of economic prosperity, social justice and common law requirements

Benefits for All

British Columbia

Improved Economy

Decreases litigation

Improved business climate

Better relationships

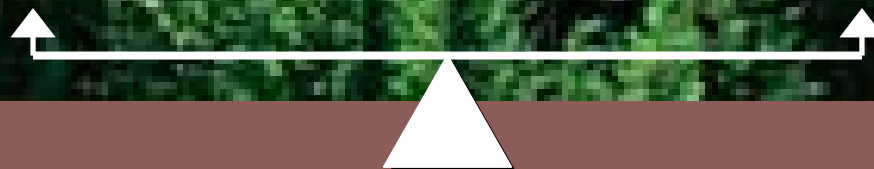

First Nations

Improved Economy

Business partnerships

Collaborative planning

Better relationships

Current Situation

- Uncertainty from Aboriginal claims is affecting the economic climate of the province
- Recent court decisions direct B.C. to consult and accommodate claims of rights and title – Taku Tlingit and Haida/Weyerhaeuser cases
- Accommodation agreements and partnerships are developing

Certainty

Treaties

Agreements in Principle

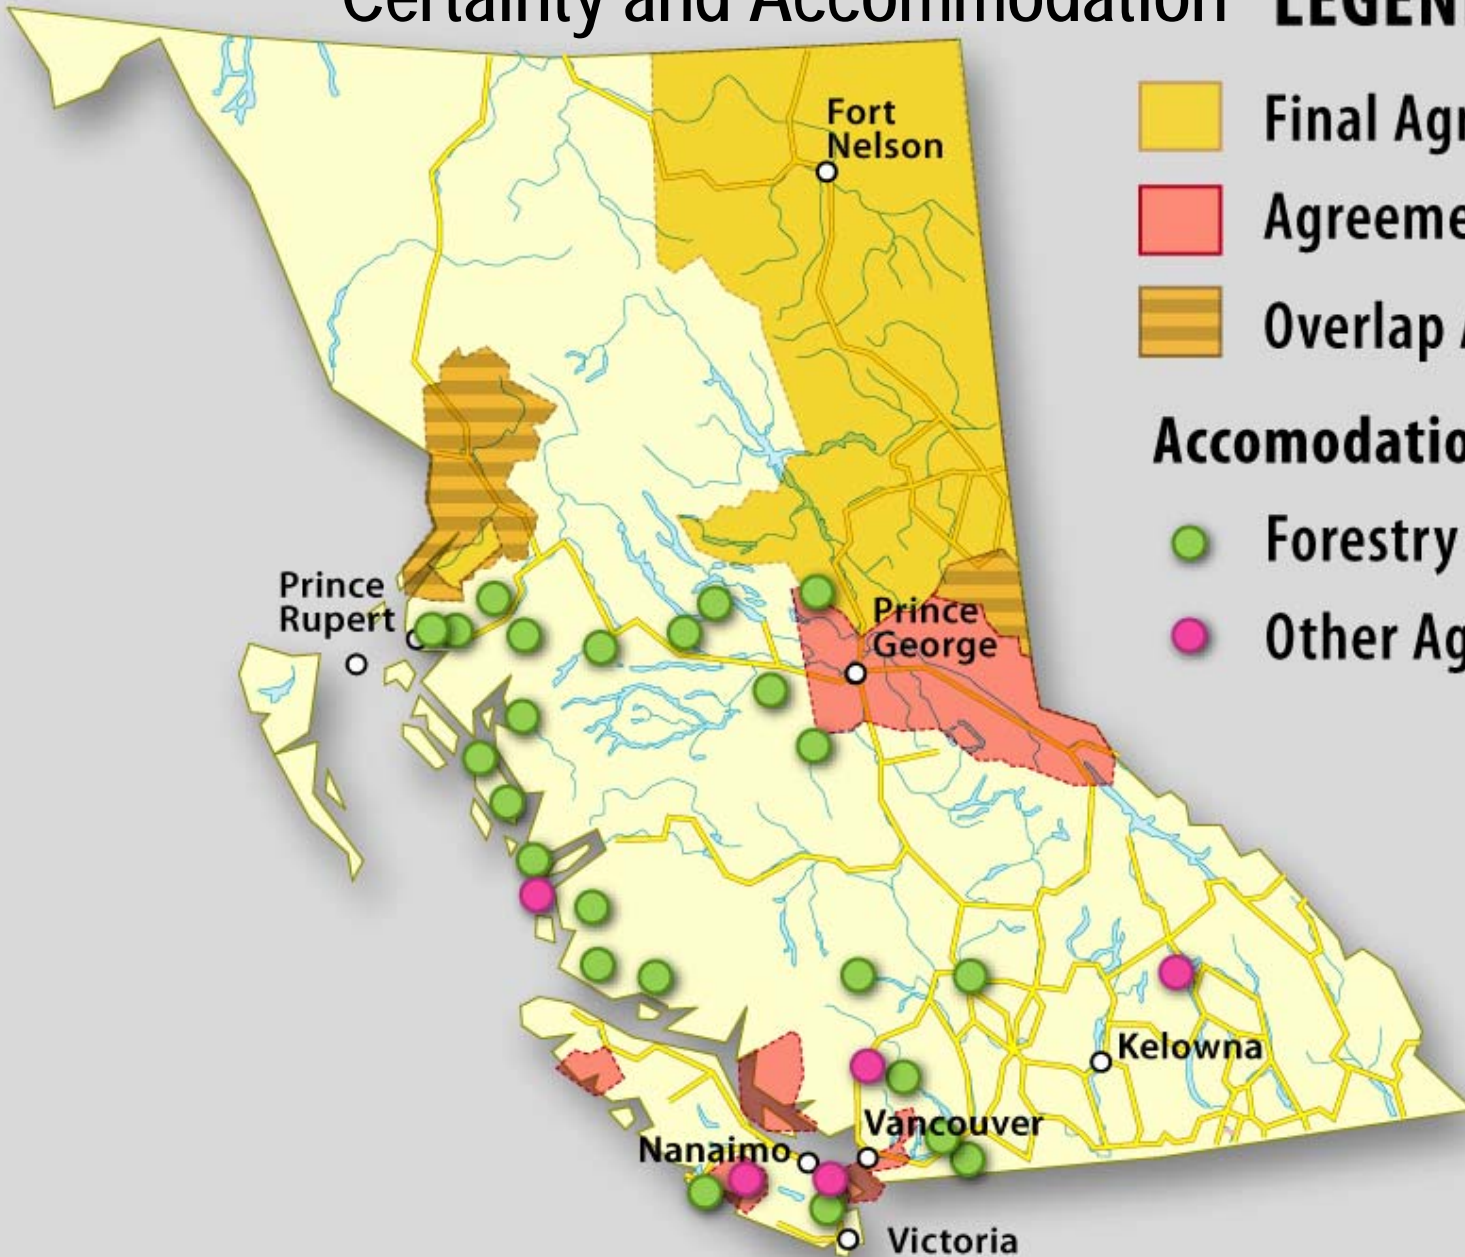

Accommodation Agreements

Economic Development Agreements

Business Partnerships

Certainty and Accommodation LEGEND

-  Final Agreements
-  Agreements in Principle
-  Overlap Areas

Accommodation Agreements

-  Forestry
-  Other Agreements

Development Agreements

LEGEND

Agreements Contributing to Certainty and Economic Development

-  Economic Development
-  Treaty Related Measures

Moving Forward

- Accommodation agreements are achieving their goals
- We continue to negotiate toward final treaties

Government-wide First Nations Accommodation

Honourable Geoff Plant

Attorney General and Minister
Responsible for Treaty Negotiations

Open Cabinet – June 30, 2004

