Statement of Management Responsibility

Year ended March 31, 2012

Management is responsible for the preparation of the annual financial statements, and has prepared the accompanying financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2012, with comparative figures for 2011, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles prescribed by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. This responsibility includes selecting appropriate accounting principles and methods, and making decisions affecting the measurement of transactions in which judgment is required.

In discharging its responsibility for the integrity and fairness of the financial statements, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded and that the financial records provide a reliable basis for the preparation of the financial statements.

The Board of Governors of the College carries out its responsibility for review and approval of the financial statements. The Audit Subcommittee of the Administration and Finance Committee of the Board meets with management and the external auditors to discuss the results of audit examinations and financial reporting matters.

These financial statements have been reported on by KPMG LLP, the College's external auditors appointed by the Board of Governors. The external auditors have full access to the Board with and without the presence of management.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Governors of Langara College and the Minister of Advanced Education, Province of British Columbia

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Langara College, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2012 and the statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Langara College as at March 31, 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Operations

Langara College ("the College") is a post-secondary institution incorporated under the College and Institute Act of British Columbia. The Province of British Columbia provides the principal source of funding. The College is exempt from income tax under the Income Tax Act.

2. Significant accounting policies

(a) Basis of presentation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) Fund accounting

The resources and operations of the College have been segregated for accounting and financial reporting purposes into the following funds:

(i) Operating Fund

The Operating Fund reflects instructional and administrative activities funded from provincial operating grants and tuition fees.

(ii) Special Purpose Fund

The Special Purpose Fund reflects activities funded under contracts with external agencies and governments and via fees for non-instructional program activities.

(iii) Ancillary Fund

The Ancillary Fund reflects commercial-oriented activities including the bookstore, daycare, parking and cafeteria.

(iv) Capital Fund

The Capital Fund reflects the College's investment in capital assets and related financing activities.

(v) Trust Fund

The Trust Fund reflects donations held on behalf of third parties that are restricted as to their use or that are to be held in perpetuity (endowments) and related investment income and other expenditures.

(c) Revenue recognition

The College follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

(i) Government grants and contributions

Government grants that are without restriction as to their use are recognized as revenue in the period in which they are received or receivable. Government grants that are restricted for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and

LANGARA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

---

recognized as revenue on the same basis as the amortization expense on the related assets. Contributions restricted for other purposes are recognized as revenue when the restrictions have been fulfilled.

(ii) Tuition fees

Tuition fees are recognized in the period in which the courses are provided.

(iii) Contract revenues

Contract revenues are recognized in the period in which the related activities are performed. The zero profit margin method is used when a contract's financial outcome is not reasonably determinable. This method of accounting requires that equal amounts of revenue and expense be recognized until the financial outcome of a contract can be reasonably estimated. Provision for anticipated losses is made in the period in which they become evident.

(iv) Ancillary services

Revenues are recognized when goods are delivered and services are provided.

(v) Donations and endowments

Unrestricted donations are recognized in the period in which they are received or receivable. Endowments are recognized as direct increases in net assets. Restricted donations and investment income are recognized as revenue when the related expenditures are incurred.

Donations of depreciable capital assets that would otherwise be purchased are accounted for as deferred capital contributions at their estimated fair market value.

(d) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term instruments with terms to maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase.

(e) Short-term investments

Short-term investments consist of investments with terms to maturity between three months and one year.

(f) Inventories

Inventories consist of books and materials held for resale, and are recorded at the lower of weighted-average cost and net realizable value.

LANGARA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

---

(g) Capital assets

Capital assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the following useful lives:

Asset	Period
Buildings and site improvements	25 - 40 years
Library books and periodicals	10 years
Furniture and equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	3 years

(h) Employee future benefits

Vacation pay is accrued as it is earned by employees. Other payroll and post-employment benefits are recorded based on the estimated actuarially-determined present value of the expected future cash flows. Actuarial gains and losses are recorded in the year that they arise.

The College participates in two multi-employer defined benefit pension plans that provide pensions for participating College employees based upon earnings and years of service. Expenses relating to these plans are recorded as the amounts are paid in accordance with the plan requirements.

(i) Fund transfers and inter-fund balances

Fund transfers are approved by the College Board. Transfers to endowments represent matching of endowment contributions under agreements with donors, and are irrevocable. Inter-fund balances owing to the Capital Fund and the Trust Fund earn interest at short-term market rates. All other inter-fund amounts are without interest. All inter-fund balances are without stated terms of repayment.

(j) Use of estimates

Preparation of the financial statements of the College requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in the financial statements. Significant areas of estimate include the rate of amortization of capital assets and the related deferred capital contributions, employee future benefits, revenue recognition of contract services and provisions for contingencies. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

(k) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified as held-to-maturity, available-for-sale, held for trading, loans and receivables, or other financial liabilities. All instruments are initially recorded at fair value and are subsequently recorded as follows:

- (i) Financial assets classified as held-to-maturity are measured at amortized cost. This includes short-term and long-term investments with fixed or determinable maturity dates.

LANGARA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

---

- (ii) Available-for-sale financial instruments are measured at fair value with unrealized gains and losses recognized in net assets, until the instrument is de-recognized. The College currently does not classify any financial assets as available-for-sale.
- (iii) Held-for-trading financial instruments are measured at fair value with unrealized gains and losses recognized in the Statement of Operations. This includes long-term investments without determinable maturity dates.
- (iv) Loans and receivables and other financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost. This includes accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and long-term debt.

The College has elected to apply the provisions of CICA Section 3861 (Financial Instruments – Disclosure and Presentation), as permitted for not-for-profit organizations.

The carrying amounts of the College's financial instruments not recognized at fair value, including short term investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued vacation pay, approximate their fair value due to their short maturities. The fair value of the College's long term debt is impacted by changes in market yields which can result in differences between carrying value and market value. Based on management's estimates, the fair value of the College's long term debt at March 31, 2012, is not significantly different than its carrying value, as interest rates applicable to the debt are not significantly different from interest rates in effect at the year-end date.

The College is not exposed to significant interest rate, currency or credit risk arising from the financial instruments.

(I) Related party transactions

The College is related through common control to all Province of British Columbia ministries, agencies, crown corporations, school districts, health authorities, universities, colleges and institutes that are included in the provincial government reporting entity. Transactions with these entities, unless disclosed otherwise, are in the normal course of operations and are recorded at the exchange amount, which is the amount of consideration established and agreed to by the related parties.

Year ended March 31, 2012

3. Investments

Long-term and short-term investments consist of guaranteed investment certificates, government and corporate bonds and bond funds and equity funds as follows:

	Less than one year	Greater than one year	Total
			2012	2011
Guaranteed investment certificates	$ 29,769,875	$ 22,177,386	$ 51,947,261	$ 46,121,034
Government and corporate bond funds	-	4,961,574	4,961,574	12,513,885
Equity funds	-	3,084,652	3,084,652	2,459,408
	$ 29,769,875	$ 30,223,612	$ 59,993,487	$ 61,094,327

The College also holds a beneficial interest in two funds controlled by the Vancouver Foundation, an independent public foundation. One fund with a fair value of $2,299,036 (2011: $2,334,695) is held in the name of the Vancouver Community College Educational Foundation (VCCEF). By agreement with the VCCEF, the College is to receive 26.3091% of the annual income from this fund. The other fund with a fair value of $141,561 (2011: $143,757) is registered directly in the name of Langara College. These funds are held in perpetuity and controlled by the Vancouver Foundation and are therefore not included in these financial statements. Investment income from these funds is recorded when received or receivable.

4. Investment in capital lease

The College has entered into an agreement for the lease of the Students' Union Building to the Langara Students' Union for a thirty-year term commencing September 1, 2009. This lease is being accounted for as a direct financing lease, whereby finance income is recognized in a manner that produces a constant rate of return on the investment in the lease. Finance income on the lease of $171,645 (2011: $174,128) is included in miscellaneous income of the Capital fund. Minimum lease payments receivable for each year of the lease are $236,513.

The College's net investment in the lease is comprised of net minimum lease payments and unearned finance income as follows:

	2012	2011

Net obligation under capital lease	$ 232,304	$ 378,317

Minimum annual payments under this lease, including imputed interest, are as follows:

	2012
2013	$ 161,342
2014	161,342
2015	80,670
Total capital lease commitments	$ 403,354

(b) Long-term debt

The College borrowed Series LC-CP-154 long-term debt through the provincial government on November 10, 2009. This debt is for a thirty-year term maturing on November 10, 2039, carries an interest rate of 4.68% with interest-only payments due on May 10 and November 10 of each year, and an annual sinking-fund requirement of $150,530, payable annually until maturity. Interest expense of $468,000 (2011: $468,000) is included in other expenses of the Capital fund.

The balance of long-term debt is as follows:

	2012	2011

10. Employee future benefits

(a) Vacation and other employee benefits

Vacation and other employee benefit obligations are unfunded and are as follows:

	2012	2011
Vacation pay	$ 4,217,755	$ 3,957,660
Other accumulated benefits	933,430	887,114
Balance, end of year	$ 5,151,185	$ 4,844,774

Vacation pay is accrued as it is earned by employees. Other accumulated benefits are based on actuarial valuations, the most recent of which was as at March 31, 2009. As a result of this valuation, the College has recorded an actuarial loss of $14,118 in the current year (2011: gain of $41,248). The expense for other accumulated benefits was $70,000 (2011: $69,000), including projected service costs and interest. This actuarial valuation was based on assumptions for the rate of inflation of 2.0%, the rate of increase in compensation of 2.75%, and a discount rate of 5.8%. The average duration of employee benefits covered by the valuation was six years.

(b) Pension plans

The College and its employees contribute to the College Pension Plan and Municipal Pension Plan, jointly trustee pension plans. The boards of trustees for these plans represent plan members and employers and are responsible for the management of the pension plan including investment of the assets and administration of benefits. The pension plans are multi-employer contributory pension plans. Basic pension benefits provided are defined. The College Pension Plan has about 13,000 active members from college senior administration and instructional staff and approximately 5,000 retired members. The Municipal Pension Plan has about 173,000 active members, with approximately 5,600 from colleges.

Every three years an actuarial valuation is performed to assess the financial position of the plan and the adequacy of the plan funding. The most recent valuation for the College Pension Plan as at August 31, 2009 indicated an unfunded liability of $28 million for basic pension benefits. The next valuation will be as at August 31, 2012 with results available in 2013. The most recent valuation for the Municipal Pension Plan as at December 31, 2009 indicated an unfunded liability of $1,024 million for basic pension benefits. The next valuation will be as at December 31, 2012 with results available in 2013. The actuary does not attribute portions of the unfunded liability to individual employers.

The College paid $3,619,419 (2011: $3,464,440) to the College Pension Plan, and $887,579 (2011: $797,012) to the Municipal Pension Plan for employer contributions in the current year.

11. Management of College capital

The College defines capital as net assets and deferred capital contributions. The principal sources of capital are grants from the provincial government and revenue generated by the ongoing operations of the College. The primary objective of the College in managing its capital is the funding of ongoing operations and additions to and maintenance of capital assets, based on available funding and economic conditions. The College is not subject to any debt covenants or other capital restrictions except for endowment funds which are required to be retained in perpetuity.

12. Commitments

The College has entered into operating leases for premises and office equipment, the minimal annual payments and minimum annual other contractual charges for which are as follows:

Fiscal year	Minimum lease payment	Minimum other charges	Total annual cost
2013	$ 212,000	$ 239,000	$ 451,000
2014	209,000	237,000	446,000
2015	37,000	34,000	71,000
Total operating lease commitments	$ 458,000	$ 510,000	$ 968,000

13. Provision for building remediation

The College previously determined that an obligation for asbestos remediation exists in facilities constructed prior to 1980. Based on an engineering study commissioned by the College, appropriate remediation procedures may be required to remove potential asbestos-containing materials upon any major renovation or demolition. As there is no requirement or intent to undertake major renovations or demolition in the foreseeable future, the present value of the cost of remediation cannot be estimated. Therefore, no obligation has been recorded.

Balance, internally restricted net assets	$ 15,936,808	$ 17,830,828

Included in Endowments is $1,045,894 (2010: $910,714) that is internally restricted by the Board.

15. Adoption of public sector accounting standards

Effective April 1, 2012, the College will adopt, on a prospective basis, generally accepted accounting principles as prescribed by the Public Sector Accounting Board of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, and as supplemented by directives issued by the Treasury Board of the Government of British Columbia. The effect of this change on the financial statements is currently under review by the College.

16. Comparative figures

Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform with the financial statement presentation adopted in the current year.
