Delegated Authority Levels
for the
Forest and Range Practices Act and Regulations
February, 2006

The Forest and Range Practices Act (as amended in May 2004), in section 2 (2), provides that the Minister responsible for the Wildlife Act, in writing, may delegate a power or duty of that Minister under the Act. Where a delegation is made, the Act, a regulation or a standard applies to the delegate as if the delegate were that Minister. The Minister may provide directions that are binding on the delegate, respecting the exercise of the power, or the performance of the duty or function.

The following table specifies the person in the Ministry of Environment delegated by the Minister for the purpose of each applicable provision in regulation.
