

What's Taxable under the PST and What's Not?

During the summer of 2011, British Columbians had the opportunity to participate in a province-wide referendum on the harmonized sales tax (HST). On August 26, 2011, Elections BC announced that British Columbians had voted in favour of eliminating the HST and returning to the provincial sales tax (PST) plus federal goods and services tax (GST) system.

Following the referendum results, government committed to make the transition back to the PST/GST system as quickly and responsibly as possible. The Provincial Sales Tax Act received Royal Assent on May 31, 2012, and the PST will be re-implemented on April 1, 2013.

The re-implemented PST, like the previous PST, will be a retail sales tax that applies when a taxable good or service is acquired for personal or business use, unless a specific exemption applies.

The PST will generally apply to:

- The purchase or lease of new and used goods in British Columbia unless specifically exempted;
- Taxable goods brought, sent or delivered into British Columbia for use in British Columbia;
- The purchase of:
 - Software;
 - Related services (i.e., services to most taxable goods);
 - Accommodation;
 - Legal services; and
 - Telecommunication services.

This document provides general information on which goods and services will be taxable under the Provincial Sales Tax Act and which will not (either because of a specific exemption or because the goods or services are not included in the tax base), subject to the approval of the legislature and the passage of regulations. The previous PST application and the GST/HST application to the goods and services for supplies that are made in British Columbia are provided for comparison purposes only. This is not an exhaustive list of all goods and services. The PST exemptions for some listed goods and services are subject to conditions. Additional information about those goods and services will be provided in the near future.

If you have questions about the application of the GST/HST to the purchase of the listed goods and services, please contact the Canada Revenue Agency.

Previously Occupied Homes	No GST, No PST	No HST	No GST, No PST
Real Estate Commissions	5% GST, No PST	12% HST	5% GST, No PST

¹⁹ BC provides a rebate of 71.43% of the provincial portion of the HST to a maximum of $ 42,500 for new housing used as a primary residence of an individual where the HST becomes payable on or after April 1, 2012 and before April 1, 2013. The rebate ensures that on average, purchasers will pay no more provincial tax due to harmonization - that is, they will pay no more in provincial HST than is embedded as PST in a new home. It is estimated that the embedded PST in new homes in BC is, on average, equal to about 2% of the price. This rebate is administered by the Canada Revenue Agency. Effective April 1, 2012, a grant of up to $42,500 for the provincial portion of the HST is available to purchasers of new secondary vacation or recreational homes outside the Greater Vancouver and Capital regional districts. To qualify, the HST must be paid or payable (whichever is earlier) on or after April 1, 2012 and before April 1, 2013. This grant is administered by the Province.

²⁰ For newly built homes where construction is at least 10% complete as of April 1, 2013, but ownership and possession transfer on or after April 1, 2013, purchasers will not pay the 7% provincial portion of the HST. Instead, purchasers will pay a temporary, transitional provincial tax of 2% on the full house price. This ensures equitable treatment among purchasers and will help mitigate distortive market behaviour. Builders may be eligible for the B.C. transition rebates to help offset PST on materials to help prevent double-taxation on homebuyers. The temporary housing transition measures will be in place for two years, until March 31, 2015. The B.C. transition tax and the B.C. transition rebate will be administered by the Canada Revenue Agency. For further details, refer to <http://www.gov.bc.ca/pst>
