Part 1: Entrepreneur Immigration Application Guide Instructions

1.1. About the Entrepreneur Immigration Application Guide

1.2. Updates to this Edition

1.1. About the Entrepreneur Immigration Application Guide

This Entrepreneur Immigration Application Guide will help you understand how to complete and submit an application through BCPNP Online.

You may only submit an application to the BC PNP Entrepreneur Immigration stream after you receive an invitation to apply.

This application guide is applicable to the following categories of the Entrepreneur Immigration stream:

- Entrepreneur Immigration – Base Category
- Entrepreneur Immigration – Regional Pilot

Note that certain categories may require additional documents. These are identified in this guide.

For details about program requirements, refer to the applicable program guide available on the BC PNP website. For information about the Strategic Projects category, please refer to the Strategic Projects section of the BC PNP website.

Part 2: General Instructions

2.1. Entrepreneur Immigration online application form

In order to submit a complete application to the BC PNP, you (the principal applicant) must:

- obtain a net worth verification report
- prepare a comprehensive business plan \(refer to Part 3 of this Guide\)
- fill out and complete the application form in BCPNP Online
- upload the required documents to support your application
- pay a non-refundable application fee of $3,500

IMPORTANT: you have 120 days from the date of your invitation to apply to submit your complete application to the BC PNP.

The BC PNP-authorized accounting firm may take up to 60 days to complete a net worth verification report from the time you make a complete submission along with all supporting documents. The BC PNP strongly recommends that you engage an authorized accounting firm as soon as you obtain an invitation to apply.

2.1. Entrepreneur Immigration online application form

You must complete each section of the Entrepreneur Immigration application form in BCPNP Online.

If you have been found to have misrepresented information in your application, including providing false or intentionally misleading information, your application will be refused, and if applicable, your nomination for permanent residence will be cancelled. The BC PNP may also refuse to accept a future application from you for up to two years.

The BC PNP may refuse your application if the information in your application is materially different from what you submitted in your registration.

You must complete the following sections in your BCPNP Online application form:

- Nominee Applicant information: you must provide personal contact information, information about any previous immigration applications, and your immigration/residency status
- Education / Work Experience: you must provide detailed information about your education and your business owner-manager and/or senior manager work experience

- Net Worth: you must provide information about your personal net worth. For information about how your personal net worth and source of funds are assessed, refer to the applicable program guide on the BC PNP website.
- Family: you must provide information about your family members
- Background: you must provide information about your background
- Business Plan : you must provide a comprehensive business plan. Refer to Part 3 of this Guide
- Attachments: you are required to upload documents and evidence that support any and all claims from your application
- Submit: the declaration in the online application requires your consent and is the legal equivalent to your signature. As the applicant, you must ensure that you have read and understood the declaration.

Part 3: Business Plan Guide

- 3.1. Business overview
- 3.2. Company and ownership structure
- 3.3. Management structure
- 3.4. Operations
- 3.5. Staffing
- 3.6. Market analysis and risk management
- 3.7. Governing laws, regulations and licensing

You do not need to pay anyone to write your business plan. As an applicant to the BC PNP, you are expected to have conducted sufficient research and due diligence, and that you have actively engaged in the preparation of your business plan. If you are invited to attend an in-person interview in Vancouver, you are expected to be conversant in all aspects of your plan.

Your business plan must be materially consistent with your registration. For details about program requirements, refer to the applicable program guide available on the BC PNP website.

The BC PNP encourages applicants to provide business plans not exceeding 10 pages plus required appendices.

Your business plan is expected to address the following topics:

3.1. Business overview

- Describe the business model and identify specific goods and services that the business will offer
- Identify the key success factors of the proposed business
- Analyze the potential for commercial viability of the business
- Describe how you as an applicant are qualified to operate and manage the business and how it relates to your past business/management experience
- Explain how you came to consider this business opportunity
- Describe the proposed location and physical outlay, including the size of the premise and property to be leased or acquired
- If you are purchasing an existing business, you must provide background information on the target business including but not limited to:
 - Business name
 - Location
 - Current ownership structure
 - Years in business
 - Target business financial performance trends
 - Purchase price and terms
 - Evidence that the business has been operated by the same owner for at least the five years

3.2. Company and ownership structure

- Describe the proposed type of business structure (partnership, corporation, etc.)
- Describe your proposed per cent ownership and how will the venture be financed

3.3. Management structure

- Highlight your role in the day-to-day management of the business
- If you are proposing a business partner(s): explain how their prior training and past work experiences are relevant to the proposed business; indicate your prior relationship and provide a description of prior meetings; and, provide a description of the business partner(s)'s proposed role in the business

3.4. Operations

- Identify and provide information on your potential suppliers of products, raw materials or services
- Describe how your business adds value through the process and the capacity of your operation
- Identify your immediate customers of your goods/services
- If you are purchasing an existing business, you must provide a detailed expansion or improvement plan for the business:
 - Provide a rationale for the proposed expansion and/or improvement of the target business
- Provide cost analysis of your operation including products/services

3.5. Staffing

- Provide job descriptions, qualifications and remunerations for the job(s) you are creating, and maintaining (if applicable), for Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada.
- Provide a hiring schedule for each new position

3.6. Market analysis and risk management

- Identify target segment and positioning of your products/services
- Provide strategy on price, distribution channel, promotional activities
- Identify and analyze major competitors in the segment market
- Provide SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats) analysis
- Describe your strategy to manage risks identified in market and financial analysis along with other external risk factors arising from barriers to entry, currency exchange risk, and other business environmental factors
- Provide analysis of break-even point, Return on Investment (ROI)

3.7. Governing laws, regulations and licensing

- Identify relevant laws, regulations, licensing requirements and other barriers to entry for the proposed business and describe how you will address each of them.
- Please refer to the applicable Entrepreneur Immigration Program Guide for information on businesses in highly regulated industries. It is unlikely that the BC PNP will approve your application if you do not properly address the regulatory requirements of doing business in the proposed industry.

Part 4: Business Plan Appendices

- Appendix #1: Investment Breakdown
- Appendix #2: Pro-forma financial statements
- Appendix #3: Resume(s)
- Appendix #4: Purchasing an existing business (if applicable)
- Appendix #5: Franchise businesses (if applicable)
- Appendix #6: Farm/agricultural businesses (if applicable)

Your business plan must include the following appendices:

Appendix # 1: Investment breakdown (required)

You must provide a detailed investment breakdown itemizing major investments. The investment breakdown may include any or all of the following:

- Capital equipment, furniture, supplies, etc.
- Leasehold improvements
- Start-up inventory
- Marketing
- Insurance, professional fees
- Operating expenses (including rent, wages, utilities, advertisements and other ongoing costs)
- Purchase of an existing business (if applicable)
- Expenses related to the expansion of an existing business (if applicable)

Refer to the investment requirements section of the applicable program guide for more information about eligible investments, including limitations of inventory and operating expenses, ineligible expenses, and timing of investments.

You must provide descriptions for the major investment items and a rationale for the proposed investment amounts. You must also provide an estimated timeline for completing the above investments.

If a partnership is proposed, provide details regarding the partner's investment (in-kind and financial).

Appendix # 2: Pro-forma financial statements (required)

You must provide two-year pro-forma financial statements including balance sheets, and income statements. Provide assumption notes for your income statements including a rationale for your estimated revenue and profitability.

❑ Appendix # 3: Resume(s) (required)

Your resume, and if applicable, resume(s) of your partner(s).

❑ Appendix # 4: Purchasing an existing business (if applicable)

If you are purchasing an existing business, you must provide copies of the following documents:

- Most recent two years of (Notice to Reader) financial statements for the existing business in B.C. including balance sheets and income statements prepared by a certified professional accountant
- Copy of the business' most recent T4 summary
- Proof of current ownership of the business in B.C. showing that the business has been owned by the current owner for a minimum of the past 5 years. This may include documentation showing the business' current owners and ownership structure, such as a share registry and incorporation documents
- Business licence of the business in B.C.
- Evidence that efforts have been made to establish a fair market value for the target business. Provide a description of due diligence performed and negotiations with the vendor to arrive at the final purchase price. If a business valuation has been completed by a professional, submit the report.

❑ Appendix # 5: Franchise businesses (if applicable)

If you are proposing to establish a new franchise business location or purchase an existing franchise location, you must provide copies of the following documents:

- Franchise agreement with the franchisor indicating their support of you as a potential franchisee
- Letter from franchisor demonstrating the franchisor's acceptance of your expansion plan (for the purchase of an existing franchise location, if applicable)
- Disclosure documents (refer to the applicable program guide for more information on what documents are to be included in the franchisor's disclosure)

□ Appendix # 6: Farm/agricultural businesses (if applicable)

All applications proposing agricultural activities must include a feasibility statement showing how the proposed business makes economic sense, prepared by a Qualified Business Consultant:

- Qualified Business Consultants are eligible to provide services to applicants of the B.C. Agri-Business Planning and B.C. Indigenous Agriculture Development Programs.
- Consultants on this list were reviewed and pre-qualified based on professional experience and qualifications.
- Please refer to the B.C. Agri-Business Program for more information.

Part 5: Net Worth Verification

- 5.1. General guidelines
- 5.2. IRCC Schedule 4A Form
- 5.3. Required documents

In order to submit an application to the BC PNP, you must obtain a net worth verification report from a BC PNP-authorized accounting firm. You are responsible for all costs associated with this review.

For general information about BC PNP-authorized accounting firms and the net worth review process, refer to the applicable program guide available on the BC PNP website.

You must submit to the authorized accounting firm a copy of the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) form IMM Schedule 4A – Economic Classes – Business Nominees and supporting documents detailed below.

Your chosen authorized accounting firm may have additional instructions and/or requirements.

- The verification report is valid for one year from the date of issuance by the accounting firm.
- All assets and liabilities must be identified, accompanied by supporting documentation.
- All assets must be your own personal holdings as well as your spouse’s or common-law partner’s, and dependent children’s, if applicable.
- All documents not in English must include copies of certified translations. The copy of the document in the original language and the translation must both be notarized.

The verification report will be used as part of the BC PNP application assessment process. Notwithstanding the conclusions of the net worth verification report, the BC PNP has sole discretion and responsibility to assess your BC PNP application and may request additional information, supporting documentation or clarification.

Failure to declare your total personal net worth may result in the refusal of your application.

Failure to provide satisfactory evidence to verify your personal net worth and source of funds may result in the refusal of your application.

5.1. General guidelines:

- You are responsible for maintaining originals of all documentation for your records and for referencing purposes.
- You may be required to submit country-specific documents.
- The authorized accounting firm may request additional documents as part of their review.
- You must include a copy of your net worth report from your chosen authorized accounting firm in your application.

5.2. IRCC Schedule 4A form

- Schedule 4A sections A (Assets), B (Real Property), C (Publicly Traded Stocks and Other Investments), E (Pensions and Other Assets), F (Real Property Mortgages), and G (Other Personal Debts) are for the disclosure of personal assets and liabilities. Do not list any type of business assets in these sections.
- Business assets are included in the Book Value (i.e. total assets minus total liabilities), Section D (Business), of this form.
- The accumulation of wealth narrative document required under Schedule 4A Section J must provide a complete history of the accumulation of net worth for you and your spouse/common-law partner. For example, provide descriptions of any property purchases and sales, previous business ownership and any other sources of income and capital gains. Refer to the IRCC Guide for Provincial Nominees for instructions:

The Section J accumulation of wealth narrative could, for example, present information on the following points:

- Employment income: date, amount and source for each year of employment;
- Business income: amount accumulated while the applicant managed the business as well as dates the business was in operation, share of distributed profits and accumulated profits;
- Investment income: shares, units, bonds (date and purchase price, sale price and current market value), interest, dividends, capital gains (date, amount and source);
- Dates and amounts of each investment made;
- Cumulative gains on personal assets: real estate (date and purchase price, sale price and current market value), other;
